

Solicitor Online Information Request System

Authorised User Nomination and Online Terms of Use

User Notes

- This form needs to be signed by both the Security Administrator (the person the Law Firm has nominated as their representative) and also by the person who is being nominated to be an Authorised User.
 - If the Security Administrator also requires access to the System he/she must also nominate himself/herself.
- If you've forgotten your Law Firm's "Organisation Customer Number" call us on 13 22 13.

1. Law firm name

Note: Authorised Users can only be nominated where the relevant Law Firm has signed a Solicitor Online Information Request System Application Form 5660.

Online information request system – online terms of use

These Online User Terms (Terms) set out the conditions that apply to your use of the Online Information Request System ("System") operated by Transport for NSW (TfNSW). By using the System you therefore agree to abide by these Terms as modified from time to time by TfNSW.

- 1. Only Authorised Users may use the System – You must not log onto or use the System unless you have been approved by TfNSW as an Authorised User.
- 2. Permitted Purpose of Access – You must only use the System for the Permitted Purpose. The Permitted Purpose is to obtain information to commence, maintain or defend a legal claim (or enforce a resulting judgment) on behalf of a client in respect of a motor vehicle accident involving that client (this includes sending a formal demand notice as a precursor to litigation). Access must not be sought for any other purpose.
- 3. Confidentiality & Privacy – Information you obtain from the System is confidential Personal Information. You must use and manage the Information in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles in the Privacy Act 1988 irrespective of whether the terms of that Act otherwise apply to you or your Law Firm.
- 4. Legal Responsibility – You are legally responsible for compliance with these Terms and the law in your access to the System and the use of the information you obtain. Breaches of these Terms may result in (1) a claim against you under privacy laws for breach of privacy; and/or (2) prosecution under Part 6 of the Crimes Act 1900 in respect of unauthorised access or modification of data.
- 5. Password & Security – TfNSW will allocate a User ID to you and will require you to create a Password to access the System. You must:
- keep your Password secret and safe;
 - memorise your Password and not write it down;
 - not disclose your Password to anyone or share it with anyone;
 - not disclose your User ID to anyone;
 - immediately advise TfNSW if you suspect that anyone else knows or may know your Password;
 - immediately change your Password to a new one if you suspect that anyone else knows or may know your Password;
 - only log in to the System using your own User ID;
 - not share User IDs or Passwords; and
 - log out of the System whenever you are not using it or you are away from your computer
 - only access the System from within your Law Firm’s office. Access from other locations (including from home) is not permitted.
- TfNSW may set rules from time to time about the type of Passwords that may be used and the frequency with which they must be changed and may at any time require you to change your Password.
- 6. Reporting Misuse – You must immediately notify your System Administrator and TfNSW if you become aware of any suspected misuse of the System or information obtained from the System or a breach of these Terms by anyone regardless of whether or not they are an authorised user.
- 7. TfNSW Powers – TfNSW may:
1. suspend or terminate your access to the System at any time if it believes you may have breached these Terms;
 2. monitor and record your use of the System to verify your compliance with these Terms; and
 3. issue directions concerning the use of the System or the information you obtain from it.
